UNOPPOSED MOTION TO DELAY SELF-SURRENDER

COMES NOW the defendant, Reynaldo Regis, by and through counsel, without objection by the government, and moves to continue the Defendant's self-surrender date so that he may spend the holidays with his family before surrendering to serve his sentence. Mr. Regis was recently given a self-surrender date of December 6, 2018, which would take him away from his family during the Christmas holidays. He would therefore respectfully request that the Court delay his self-surrender by one month so that he may spend the Christmas holidays with his family. The government does not oppose this request, and an agreed order is attached.

Respectfully submitted,

REYNALDO REGIS
By Counsel
